FOREWORD

First issue of Squalen Bulletin of Marine and Fisheries Postharvest and Biotechnology has been launched in May 2019, started with manuscript related with food/fish safety entitled “An Estimation of Endogenous Formaldehyde Exposure due to Consumption of Indonesian Opah Fish (Lampris guttatus) in Three Major Export Destination Countries”, followed by fish handling in tropical waters entitled “Physicochemical and Microbiological Evaluation of Frozen Tuna Loin Handling in Ambon, Indonesia”. The following manuscripts on marine biodiscovery i.e “Color Stability of Phycoerythrin Crude Extract (PECE) from Rhodomonas salina toward Physicochemical Factors” and “Screening of Marine-derived Fungi Extracts as Antioxidant, Tyrosinase Inhibitor, and Antiglycation” will be enclosed with invited review manuscripts on the molecular identification technique of seaweed. As we know, seaweed is always hot topics in tropic where seaweed production/cultivation is amazing, therefore, the identification is becoming important before the seaweed is mass cultivated following its utilization.

We would like to thank Prof. Dr. Noer Khasanah, Prof. Dr. Amarila Malik, Dr. Antonius Herry Cahyana, Dr. Novriyandi Hanif, Dr. Muhammad Nursid, Dr. Dwiwitno, Dr. Wini Trilaksani, Dr. Santiago Valdez Hurtado, Dr. Bagus Sediadi Bandol Utomo, Dr. Rebecca Lawton, Dr. Asmi Citra Malina, Indun Puspita Dewi, Ph.D as reviewers for this issue.

Special thanks, also, go to the contributors of the journal for their trust, patience and timely revisions. We hope that this issue arouses our readers' interest and may inspire new research and new findings which will then be published in our future issues of Squalen Bulletin.

AUTHORS GUIDELINES
SQUALEN: BULETIN PASCAPANEN DAN BIOTEKNOLOGI KELAUTAN DAN PERIKANAN
(SQUALEN: BULLETIN OF MARINE AND FISHERIES POSTHARVEST AND BIOTECHNOLOGY)

1. Scope: research paper, short communication and reviews in the field of postharvest, food safety and environment, and bio-discovery of marine and fisheries.
2. Language: English. It is preferable that manuscripts are professionally edited. The abbreviated name or expression should be cited in full at first usage, followed by the accepted abbreviation in parentheses. Metric SI units should generally be used. Chemical formulas and solutions must specify the form used, e.g. anhydrous or hydrated and the concentration must be in clearly defined units. Common species names should be followed by the Latin binomial (Italic) at the first mention.
3. Manuscript: should be prepared max. 15 pages, double-spaced (except for title, tables, figures, and bibliography which is prepared in single-spaced) in Microsoft Word on A4 paper, font (Arial 10).

Research Paper manuscripts should contain the following sections :

- a. Title: brief, concise and informative, reflecting the manuscript material. Avoid the abbreviation and formula where possible. Author's name, institution, and address are written under the title.
- b. Abstract : a concise and factual abstract is required. The abstract should state briefly the purpose of research, the principle method, result and conclusion. Non-standard or uncommon abbreviation should be avoided, but if essential they must be defined at their first mention in the abstract itself. Abstract should not exceed 250 words.
- c. Key words: contain 3 to 5 words, referred from Agrovocs
- d. Introduction: state the background and objective(s) of the work, avoiding a detailed literature survey or a summary of the results.
- e. Material and Methods: provide sufficient detail to allow the work to be reproduced. Methods already published should be indicated by a reference; only relevant modification should be described.
- f. Results and Discussion: results should be clear and concise. Discussion should explore the significance of the results of the work, not repeat them. Avoid extensive citation and discussion of published literature.
  - Tables: Short, clear and must be able to stand alone. Table should have a title and number in sequence and are placed above the table, font (Arial 10).
  - Figures and graphics: Prepared in appropriate pattern usable for black and white versions of all the color illustrations. Graphics should be prepared in MS Excel. Figure should have a title and number in sequence. Figure and graphics title and their explanation or notes are placed below the figures or graphics, font (Arial 10).
  - Pictures/photograph: Prepared in contrast color or B/W. Pictures/photographs should have a title and number in sequence. TIFF: color or grayscale photographs (halftones) always use a minimum of 300 dpi; bitmapped line drawings use a minimum of 1000 dpi; combinations bitmapped line/halftone (color or grayscale) a minimum of 500 dpi is required.
- g. Conclusion: Concise considering the title, objectives and research results.
- h. Acknowledgement: Collate acknowledgements, if any, in separate sections at the end of the article before the reference and do not, therefore, include them on the title page, as a footnote to the title or otherwise.
- i. Bibliography: Follow the APA (American Psychological Association) style referencing. References in the text should cite the latest and primary references at least 80% are strongly advised.
